Dear EquipGirl,

I can't tell you how much I and the staff are looking forward to meeting you or seeing you again if you are a returning camper. I started this camp just for you! It is part of a life-long dream I have had from the time I was about 10 years old.

Do you have dreams and goals for your future?

Did you know that you can start working on that dream now-by the decisions that you make in life even as a girl!

I want you to know that from now on our staff will be there for you anytime you need us. From answering beauty questions to being a close friend- we are dedicated to your success in life and helping you reach those dreams. This camp can be a life-changing experience for you!

Even if you are nervous about coming to camp- plan for a week of fun and growth and making new friends- and you won't be disappointed!

If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions on anything- I want to hear it.

So email me anytime through the website or at trishpark@hotmail.com.

We still have openings- if you want to bring friends!

Can't wait to see you at camp!!!

Here are a few details that you need to know!

Love and Belief--Trish Parker

Karaoke Event

If you want to participate, you will be able to choose karaoke music from a large selection at camp or bring your own for the event. There will be other times throughout the week to sing and perform. Our vocal staff will be working -with those interested- in voice technique and skill. You can perform in the karaoke event as a soloist or create an entire performance with back-up singers.

You can bring clothing to dress up in fun outfits for the performance. So start planning!

If you have a special request for EG to add to our Karaoke Selection, please email it to us through the website, and we will do our best to have it for you.

The song must have lyrics that are acceptable-no violence or suggestive, explicit, or perverse language.

Music is subject to staff approval.
